Definition of Vacant -refers to the circumstance where, regardless of the presence of furnishings, the occupant has moved out with no intention of returning. In the case of a newly constructed or newly acquired dwelling, an occupant has not yet taken up residence. Furthermore, the dwelling is also vacant when the occupant(s) move(s) out and before any new occupant(s) move(s) in.

Policy Warranty Clauses

- ✦ It is a condition of the coverages provided, that your premises, including the interior of your dwelling shall be inspected not less than once in every 72 hour period.
- ✦ It is warranted by you that there is no marijuana activity or illegal substance activity on the premises
- ✦ If the perils of vandalism, burglary & robbery are provided, it is warranted that there is an activated monitored alarm in your dwelling

The answers in all parts of this questionnaire are correct to the best of my / our knowledge and belief.
I / We understand that no coverage is provided for glass breakage or water damage and that it is recommended that the water, in the dwelling, be turned off and the lines drained.
I / We have read and understand the 'Definition of Vacant' and the 'Policy Warranty Clauses'.
